Mackerel News.

The steam seiner Mina and Lizzie arrived at Portland on Friday with 12,000 pounds of fresh mackerel which were sold at five cents a pound. The mackerel were caught in two sets about 40 miles southeast of Monhegan. The captain reports the fish as being wild and although many sets were made the fish would go through the bottom before the seine could be pursed. A large fleet were off Monhegan last week and but few of them got any fish. The mackerel brought in by the Mina and Lizzie were of good size and fat. Many of them were landed alive, having been kept in the steamer's well.
Sch. Angielena, Capt. Samuel T. Joseph, is at Boston this morning, with a fare of 200 barrels of fresh mackerel, the fish being taken Sunday afternoon off Marshfield. Steamer Angelia B. Nickerson is also there with 60 barrels of fresh ones.

ON MIDDLE BANK.

Sch. Corsair Made Hundred Barrel Haul Yesterday Afternoon.

SEVERAL SMALL SALT FARES IN.

Large Hauls Made Sunday at Portuguese Cove, N. S.

Most of the seining arrivals today are from the Maine coast. They left Georges after taking some fish and went to the Bay of Fundy. All have small fares, but the most of what they have was taken there. The vessels then worked up to the Maine coast as the fish became scarce, but found the prospect no better at the latter place. On Saturday the fish showed in small schools off Monhegan, and several little hauls were made. There was no body to the fish.
Undoubtedly the best prospects today are right here in Boston Bay, where several fine hauls have been made recently. Sch. Corsair was one of the lucky crafts. She went out from here yesterday afternoon and made a hundred barrel haul on Middle bank and ran them in here fresh last evening, selling the fish to the Gloucester Fresh Fish Company at 7 3-4 cents apiece.
Mackerel struck in again Sunday at Portuguese Cove, some miles below Halifax, N. S., and about 70,000 were secured. The fishermen sold many of them at $1.50 per 100. The wind has changed to the southeast and the men will have to haul the seines and let many of the fish go.
At Halifax last week, 400 barrels of salt mackerel were landed. The fish brought $5.25 to $5 75 per barrel for plain and $6 to $6.25 for rimmed. The fishing continues good.
At Richibucto, N. B., the boat landed 6000 mackerel last week. The fishing is not so good as it has been.
Steamer F. S. Willard is at Portland today with 100 barrels of fresh mackerel and 50 barrels of salt mackerel taken off the Maine coast.
The fares of schs. M. S. Ayer, and Henry W. Longfellow sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co.
GREAT STOCKS.
Several of the Shackers Make Very Fine Trips.
New Sch. Flirt Gets a Big Malden Trip.
The new sch. Flirt, owned by D. B. Smith & Co. and commanded by Capt. Albert Green, one of the smartest skippers of the shack fleet, stocked $3700 as the result of her maiden trip, shacking, the crew making the splendid share of $110. This is one of the largest stocks and shares ever made in the shack fishery, being equalled but once or twice.
Sch. Horace B. Parker, Capt. William H. Thomas, stocked $3500 on her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $110.06. Capt. Thomas is noted for his big fares.
Sch. Edie M. Morrissey, Capt. Joshua W. Stanley, stocked $3100 on her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $90.11. Capt. Stanley is one of the old reliables.
